

Lloyd Place, Regina, SK

Lloyd Place is home to Saskatchewan Environment and has underwent an extensive rehabilitation over 2 years. This rehabilitation includes a building control system upgrade and a complete redesign of floor layouts (architecturally, mechanically, and electrically).

Prime consultant and commissioning agent.

- Awarded contract based upon our position as industry leaders for providing project commissioning services.
- Management of a complicated project that involves coordinating and moving existing tenants in this multi-stage project.
- Project includes asbestos abatement.