

Meewasin Valley Centre, Saskatoon, SK

The facility will be the new interpretive centre and office space for the Meewasin Valley Authority. It will celebrate the unique relationship between the South Saskatchewan River and the City of Saskatoon and the role it continues to play through displays and exhibits.

- IDI Involvement: LEED Sustainability Consultant and IPD Facilitator
- Goal to design & construct considering the most innovative approaches to sustainability as practical
- A signature building that will be the heart of the Meewasin Valley
- LEED Gold target
- 21,200 sf including 6,000 sf of interpretive exhibits
- Construction Start 2009